EASLEY APPOINTS KELLY TO ZOOLOGICAL COUNCIL

RALEIGH - Gov. Mike Easley appointed Kim Kelly of Apex to the North Carolina Zoological Park Council.

Kelly has worked for Hunton & Williams of Raleigh since 1985. She has been involved in the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Wake County since 1984 and more recently in the West Lake Elementary mentor program. Kelly received her bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1982.

The North Carolina Zoological Park Council is made up of 15 members who each serve six-year terms. The council's main purpose is to advise the secretary on basic concepts of the Zoological Park. It approves conceptual plans for the park and its buildings and advises on its construction, furnishings and operations. It is also the council's duty to establish set admissions fees.
